DEDICATION

Fixing the candy machines . . .
attending dances and games . . .
greeting students . . . doing favors for teachers Charlie Spencer keeps Yale
High School running.

His many years of service to us,
have made Yale a happier school.

We of the Yearbook staff are proud to dedicate the 1971 Bulldog to Charlie Spencer.

Mr. Eldred

Mrs. Decker

Mr. Leach

Mr. Yurko

Members of Yale's Administration have done much to help us during our year at school. Mrs. Decker, Librarian, and Mr. Little and Mr. Wark, counselors, are always ready to aid us whether it be a question about school work now, or school work in the future.

Mr. Yurko, our principal, is ever ready to lend a hand, be it for the school or us.

ADMINISTRATION

Betty Halsey

Rose Edgerton

Jean Nadeau

Vera Hoskins

Our counseling department has done much to further the education of our students, and received many headaches in doing so. With schedule changes, if it isn't from geometry to physics, then it's gym to study hall. But with the combined efforts of the counselors and secretaries, things usually work out.

Busy fingers?

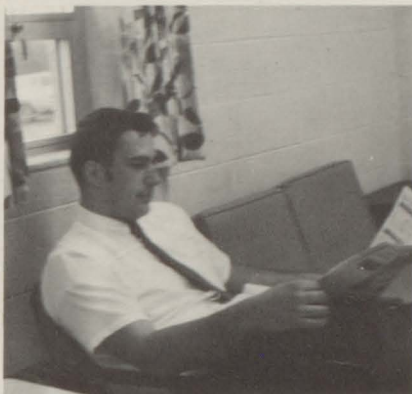

Preparing for the work-world of tomorrow. Students pictured are hard at work learning shorthand, typing, and other business courses.

Would you repeat that please?

AGRICULTURE

Russell Latchaw

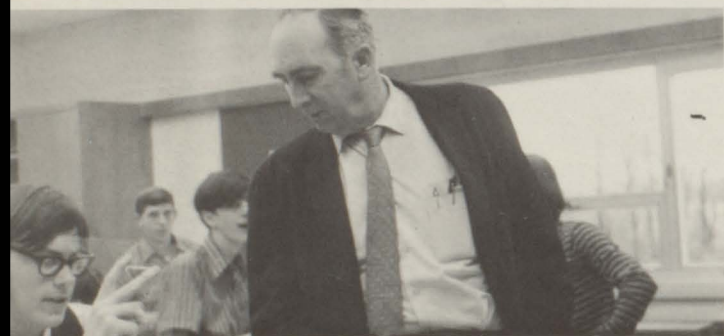

The members of the Ag. classes are always busy with many projects. They range from beef to corn to supplying meals for the FFA banquet, as shown by our four fuzzy friends in the picture.

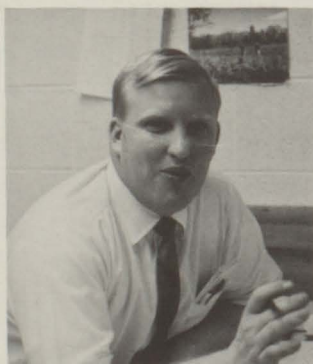

And to think they're gonna eat them!

CUSTODIANS & COOKS

Mrs. Stiles

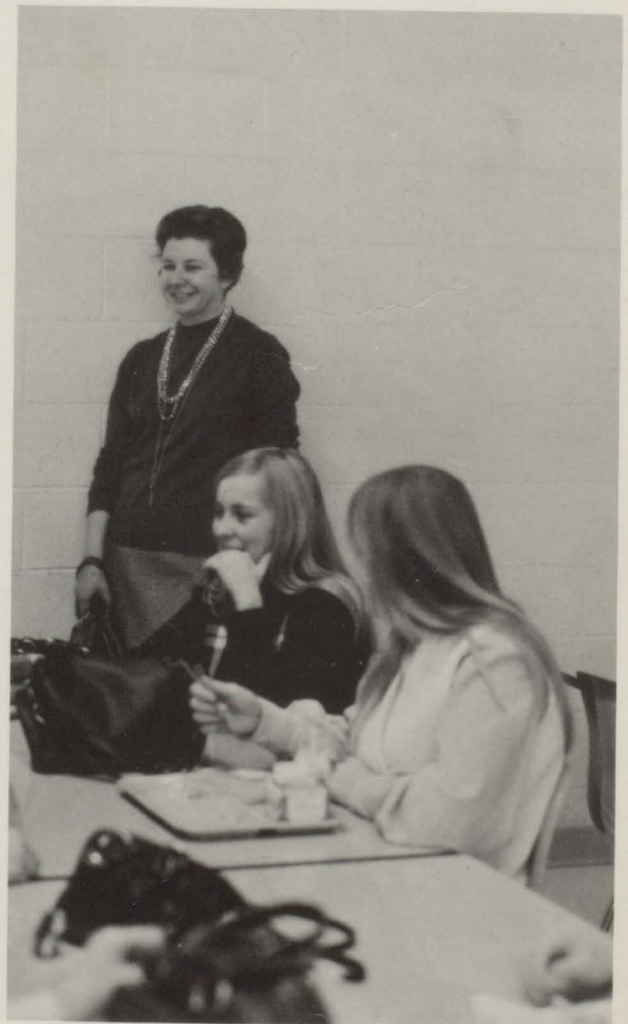

Mr. Spencer

Through the careful and watchful eyes of our cooks and custodians not only is our school in good shape, but the students are too.

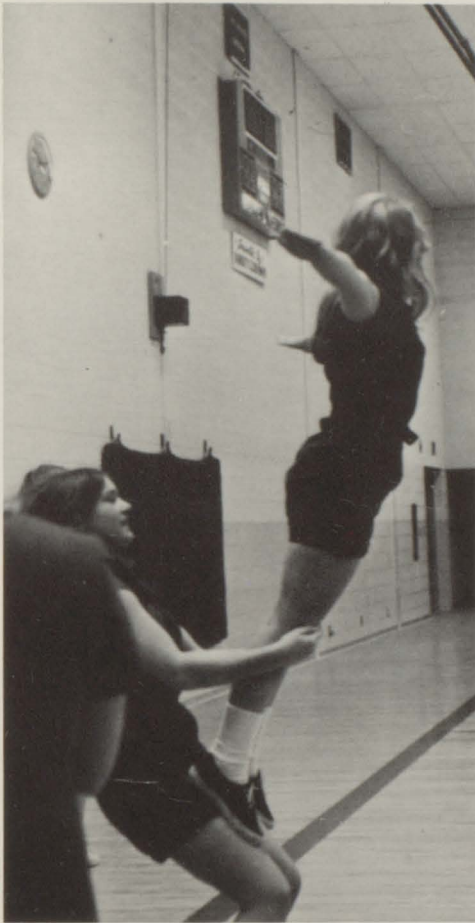

Mrs. Boers, Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Carson.

PHYS. ED.

Carolyn Erdman

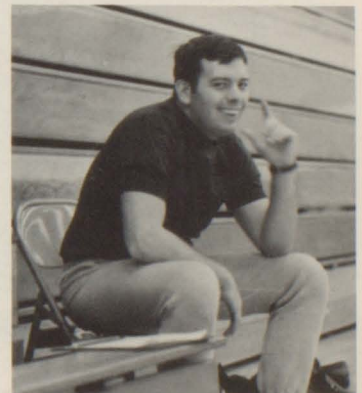

Dave Martin

Physical Education is always an important part of any school's activities. Not only does it help to condition the students, but it also enables them to let off steam.

Mr. Martin is always busy, playing an important part in all the students' physical developments. Mrs. Erdman, Girl's P.E. teacher and cheerleading advisor, is ever ready with helpful advice.

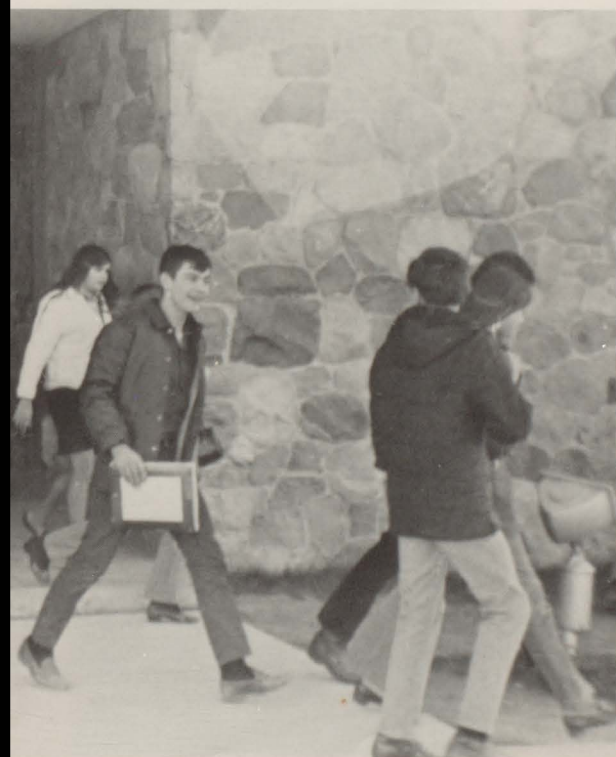

Hold 'er up!

Foreign Exchange Student

Antti Eskola, better known as "Andy", was our foreign exchange student from Finland. He came from near Helsinki, and made his home for the year with Doug Campbell and his family. Andy was always very involved in school, and served on the Student Council for his year.

The Class Of 72 Junior Play

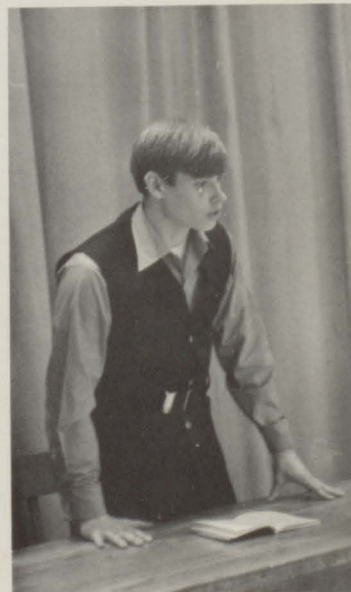

John, playing the part of establishment?

"I OBJECT!"

Gee, he said that nice!

What WAS I going to say?

The Plot

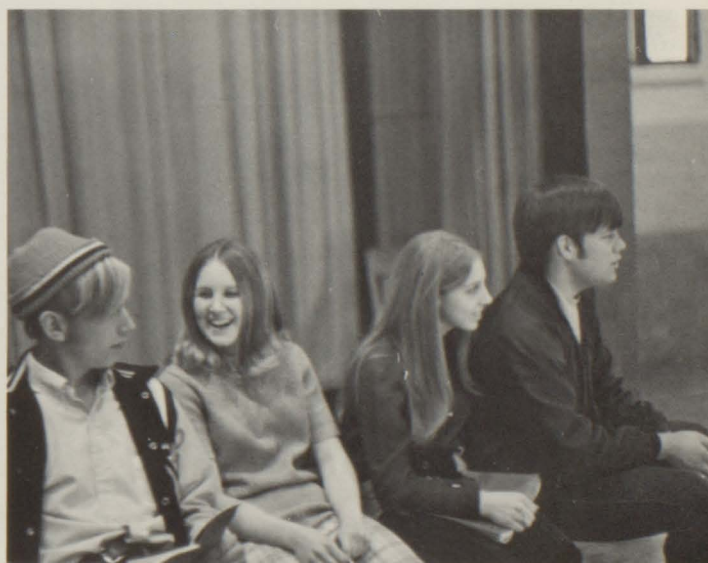

This is a play based on a trial in which Nancy Gage is accused of killing a woman named Thea. All the evidence points to Nancy. The defense attorney is in love with her, and the only people who think that she is innocent are the teenagers. It all looks very bad for Nancy.

The prosecution won?

Tension mounts as the jury decides.

GUILTY!

It's after 9:00, Gene!

Watch it back there!

Can't you think of a better line?

Hey, this is a great party!

Let's have a serious talk.

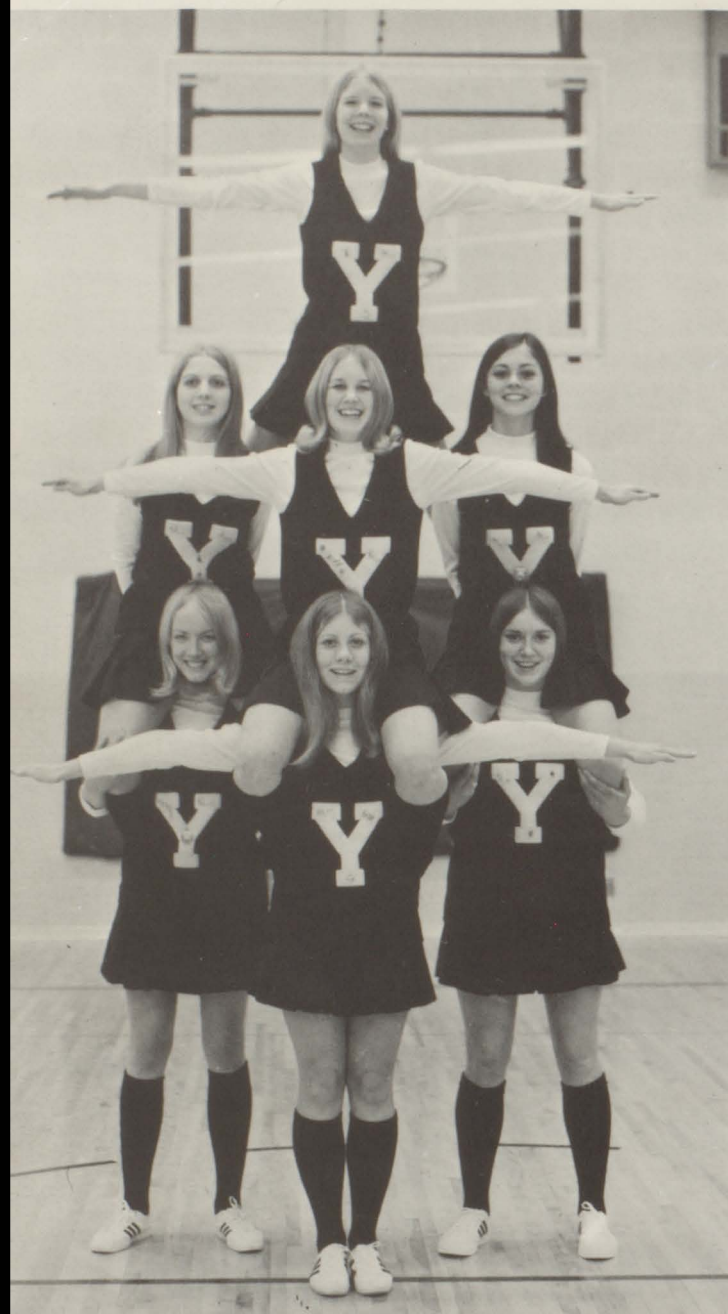

Do you think you could advise me?
